

Sex Story: Hi It's Billy Again

I didn't even tell you what I look like. I was so into talking about how much I love sex, I forgot.

I am 5'2, milk chocolate skin, I could tell you the color of my hair, but I change it all the time. Right now it's straight and black, down just past my shoulders. I have meat on my bones, I am nowhere near skinny but my curves are dangerous. I have big tits and a big ass. I weigh 140lbs. You know Little Kim, that hot rapper? I look like her, except my lips are real.

So I bet you are wondering what happened with that guy I saw at the beach, if you read my first blog.

I was wearing my pink string bikini, the top and sides undone. He was really fucking hot. He was about 6'3, dark chocolate and built like a fucking god. He was wearing black shorts and through his shorts I could see his cock swinging free.

He saw me and walked a little behind his fam. I could see him looking at my full ass so I wiggled it a bit for him and smiled. He was about 10 feet way and deliberately walked closer to me. I got up on one arm and lifted my shoulder so he could see my dark brown , hard nipple.

I saw his cock jump in his shorts and stiffen up. Meanwhile his wife was setting up their little camp about 20 feet away farther down the beach. He went over to them and said something to his wife. His wife was good looking but no fucking match for me.

I tied my bikini bottoms and top back up, and stood. My tits felt hard, they always do when I'm horny. My big 2 inch nipples were poking through my top. I walked toward the concession stand with my bag, leaving my towel behind. I looked back just as he was saying something to his wife. I watched him start to follow me.

I walked behind the stand. There were crates and a tarp there, shielding me a bit from the people on the beach. I stood with my back to the stand and saw him walk past where I was standing.

“Looking for me?” My voice was a little raspy cause I was super horny. He jumped a little when he heard me. He said “Damn girl, you are so fine!”

I reached down and with both hands took my big tits out of my bra. His eyes just about popped out of his head. I grabbed his hands and put one on my right tit and the other on the crotch of my panties. He obviously didn't think I was going too fast cause he moaned and started rubbing my pussy. I know he could feel how wet I was. I felt him use his fingers to push my panties to the side. I moaned as he put one of his fingers in. I ground down on his hand and reached for his hard cock in his shorts.

I bent down and fished around in my bag. I felt him start to rub his hard cock on my ass. I handed him the condom and turned back around. I heard the wrapper rip and I pushed my bottoms to the side.

Without any foreplay, I felt him trying to squeeze his big cock in my pussy. I moaned loud as he pushed it in. Fuck, I remember so clearly how he stretched out my pussy, he was so thick! I pushed back on him as he pushed in. I felt that long cock bump my cervix. I bit my lip, tried not to cry out.

He fucked me hard and I came so many times in about 2 minutes. That's how long he lasted was two minutes. It was silent sex, except for his moans and my gasps and moans. I knew he was going to blow when he grabbed my shoulders and held me there, not able to move. I felt his cock spasm and jerk deep in my hole.

He shouted “Fuck!” and “Holy shit” when he popped.

I stood up, fixed my bottoms and without another word, just a smile, I left him there behind the concession stand and went back to my towel.

As I lied back down, I saw his wife staring at me. I smiled, said hello and untied my bikini again to enjoy some more sun.
